

ATS: Advanced Teacher Status

THE BADGE OF ADVANCED PROFESSIONALISM AND MASTERY IN FURTHER EDUCATION AND TRAINING

ELIGIBILITY

ATS applicants will need to meet the following criteria:

- have been awarded with Qualified Teacher Learning Skills (QTLS) or Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) for at least one year before starting their portfolio
- have held their initial teacher education qualification for a minimum of four years prior to starting their portfolio
- be teaching or training in a post-14 setting (including training colleges) for an average of eight hours a week (or equivalent annualised hours) for the duration of undertaking ATS.

ADVANCED TEACHER STATUS

Advanced Teacher Status (ATS) is the badge of advanced professionalism and mastery in further education and training. It is conferred by the Education and Training Foundation (ETF) through the Society for Education and Training (SET).

ATS will offer a significant step up from QTLS to recognise advanced teachers and trainers with significant experience, who can demonstrate, at a high level, three key attributes:

- 1. mastery in teaching and/or training
- 2. an exemplary level of subject knowledge in their area of professional expertise
- 3. effectiveness in working collaboratively to improve teaching standards amongst their peers and within their organisation or network

The ETF has worked closely with the Chartered College of Teaching to ensure holders of ATS will automatically be conferred Chartered Teacher Status

THE BENEFITS OF ATS

ATS is a deserved and highly sought badge of recognition for advanced teachers and trainers, offering a progression pathway for those who have achieved QTLS.

Achievement of ATS will allow applicants to:

- demonstrate to employers and colleagues their mastery in teaching or training
- advance their career and progress to more senior roles
- use ATS as a designation in their signature and profiles
- upgrade their SET membership to Fellow

Undertaking ATS is an excellent developmental opportunity enabling applicants to:

- reflect on their practice to further improve their teaching and learning skills
- critically evaluate their practice and build collaborative relationships with colleagues and learners, developing skills in mentoring colleagues to bring about changes in their own and others' practice
- maintain and update their subject knowledge and educational research
- collaborate with employers, where applicable
- contribute to organisational development and quality improvement
- develop curriculum or teaching and learning leadership skills
